

Vedder Price Shareholder Misha Daha Named Recipient of 16th Annual Emerging Leaders Awards

Vedder Price is pleased to announce that Shareholder Misha Daha has been selected as a winner of the 16th Annual Emerging Leaders Awards as announced by The M&A Advisor.

Daha and this year's other award winners were selected by an independent judging panel for their innovation, leadership, and community contributions.

"These professionals have not only risen to today's challenges but are actively shaping tomorrow's opportunities," said Roger Aguinaldo, Founder and CEO of The M&A Advisor. "They join a global community of peers making a lasting impact on the industry."

A member of the firm's Finance & Transactions group, Daha represents closed-end funds as borrowers and as lenders and investment and commercial banks in domestic and cross-border financing transactions. Additionally, she advises clients in high profile, high value transactions and on a variety of finance matters including net-asset value facilities and subscription/capital call facilities.

# #