Format and General Drafting Tips

- ✦ Start from a Part 2A template
- ✦ Have marketing materials, website, firm DDQ, current product offering materials and your last year's Parts I and II of Form ADV at the ready
- ✦ Watch out for inconsistent disclosure
 - Good opportunity to clean up disclosure across the board
- ✦ Use conflicts/risk management committee agenda or meeting notes to help spot conflicts of interest
- ✦ Do not merely cut and paste from last year

Item 1

- ✦ Item 1 – Cover Page
 - Full legal name of the adviser must be disclosed (Item 1.A)
 - ▶ DBA not sufficient
 - Make sure you include the required language on the cover page
 - No requirement to name a specific individual for questions about the brochure

© 2011 Vedder Price P.C.

VEDDERPRICE.

Item 2

◆ Item 2 – Material Changes

- For this year, recommend noting that the entire brochure should be considered materially updated
- For future updates, summarize material changes
 - ▶ Rule release references policies, practices and conflicts of interest
 - ▶ Keep the summary short
 - ▶ Don't need to repeat the change in its entirety

Item 3

◆ Item 3 – Table of Contents

- Table of Contents needs to be in the same order as it appears in the form
- Some templates don't track the form, so double-check the table of contents
- Must respond to all Items
- Item 19 can be deleted for SEC registered advisers

VEDDERPRICE.

Item 4

◆ Item 4 – Advisory Business

- Sets the stage for Plain English
- Bucket advisory services into categories
- Check last year's Part II to make sure you cover all the advisory services offered by your firm
- Consider future services
- Executives that were listed in prior Part II can be listed here
- Discretionary and Non-Discretionary AUM numbers need to be rounded to the nearest $100,000 and cannot be more than 90 days before the date of the filing
 - ▶ Keep documentation supporting AUM computation

Item 5

◆ Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

- Various approaches to fee ranges
 - ▶ Suggest disclosing ranges by product lines
 - ▶ Balance disclosure with existing offering materials
- Description of other fees or expenses clients may pay in addition to advisers' services (i.e., custody, admin) (Item 5.C)
- Broker compensation and conflicts of interest in recommending investment products based on compensation received rather than client's needs (Item 5.E)
 - ▶ Example of conflicts disclosure mandated by the form
- Consider disclosing preferential fee terms from side letters and/or most favored nations provisions
- Catchall statement that fees are negotiable and may vary from general fee schedule

VEDDERPRICE.

Items 6 and 7

- ◆ Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-by-Side Management
 - If engaging in side-by-side management, disclosure of how the conflict is addressed is mandated by the form
 - ▶ Adviser will want to summarize trade allocation procedures to illustrate how it handles the conflict

- ◆ Item 7 – Types of Clients
 - Consider including catchall statement that minimums can be waived
 - Check the categories noted on last year's Part II

Item 8

- ◆ Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss
 - Consider putting Investment Strategies before Methods of Analysis
 - Consult your client's offering materials for risk factors to keep them consistent
 - Several approaches on risk factors
 - ▶ Kitchen sink
 - ▶ Disclose only primary risks
 - Focus on risk factors applicable to your services (e.g., manager of managers versus direct trading)

VEDDER PRICE.

Items 12 and 14

◆ Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

- Directed Brokerage
 - ▶ If advisers direct clients to execute transactions through a specific broker, disclose the practice or policy and any economic relationship with the broker that creates a conflict
- Trade aggregation
 - ▶ Discuss circumstances where trades will be aggregated
 - ▶ Disclose if you don't aggregate where you have the opportunity to do so along with the costs to clients of not aggregating

◆ Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

- Aside from required solicitor disclosure, consider adding disclosure on other fees or revenue sharing arrangements between the adviser and a third party or affiliate
